

BATTLEZONE VICTORIES

I enjoy all sports and most enthusiastically soccer. There are great life truths you can learn through playing sports that carry into business, family, and day to day living. Knowing that BattleZONE Training Course uses the game of football, I really identified with the concept of training in order to perform well in the game.

After going through the course the first time, I decided to become a Certified BattleZONE Coach as an intentional element of my own spiritual training program. In addition to daily devotion, study, and prayer, BattleZONE is a critical component to my own daily spiritual fitness. The men that I lead through BattleZONE actually teach me as much as I teach them - their experiences are no different than my own in many ways; so I can encourage them as they encourage me.

Each time I complete the course with a group of men, I find the Holy Spirit “redefining” my own BattleZone. In some cases what I thought was my BattleZone previously, really becomes just a symptom of the “real BattleZone” I needed to address before the Lord. With this realization, I am able to create a new game plan, apply the tools learned in the course, and then fight a better more strategic battle. In some ways, it is like peeling an onion, one layer at a time. BattleZone, over time, helps me work through the areas (layers) of my life that are not totally surrendered to Jesus.

Continuing to disciple men is critical to my remaining surrendered to the Holy Spirit, and yielded to “Gods will” for my life. Jesus said to go into the world and make disciples...”teaching them to obey everything he commanded”....BattleZone helps me accomplish Jesus’ assignment.

Choosing to be a coach is a great privilege that carries responsibility, blessings, and the satisfaction of doing something really significant for the Kingdom of God. Because of my commitment to pursue holiness and live like Christ, I am prayerfully selecting men who will be disciples and GO and make more. Will you be that man?
